- the Policy Wording including the Schedule of Cover;
- your application for insurance;
- your Certificate of Insurance; and
- any written endorsements we provide to you.

These documents make up your policy and should be carefully read together. It is important that they are kept in a safe place, together with evidence as to the value of any insured items.

The Cost Of This Insurance

When calculating the cost of your travel insurance, we take a number of factors into account, including:

- where you are travelling to;
- how long you are travelling;
- the level of cover you have chosen;
- how old you are; and
- if you have selected any additional cover such as winter sports.

The amount payable by you for the travel plan selected and any additional cover you choose will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance, including compulsory government charges (including Stamp Duty and GST where applicable). This policy is only valid when you pay the amount payable and a Certificate of Insurance is issued to you.

Confirming Cover

A Certificate of Insurance will be issued once you have completed your online application and you have paid the appropriate amount.

Your Duty Of Disclosure - What You Must Tell Us

You have a Duty of Disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) that requires you to tell us certain things. Before you enter into a policy with us or vary an existing policy, we will ask you a series of questions. You must tell us everything you know or which a reasonable person in the circumstances would be expected to know in answering the questions in the online application.

The answers you provide will help us to decide:

- whether we will insure you;
- the amount we will charge you; and
- whether any special conditions will apply to your policy.

You do not have to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes the risk;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer; or
- which we indicate we do not want to know.

Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the Duty of Disclosure. If you provide information about another insured person, you do this on their behalf. If you (or they) don't comply with the Duty of Disclosure, we may reduce the amount of any claim and/or cancel your insurance. If fraud is involved, we may treat your insurance as void from the beginning.

General Insurance Code Of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (Code), which is a self regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Underwriters are members of the Insurance Council of Australia. Both the Underwriters and Insure4less support and comply with the Code, the objective of which is to raise the levels of practice and service in the general insurance industry.

There is also no cover for any loss you may suffer as a result of any Pre-existing Medical condition as detailed below:

- Pre-existing Medical Condition means any dental or medical condition, defect or disease suffered by you or any other person upon whose state of health the trip depends:
 1. for which advice or treatment (including prescribed medication), or investigation has been received or prescribed in the twelve (12) months prior to the issue of this policy;

Working Overseas

Our travel insurance allows you to carry out non-manual, non-hazardous work whilst overseas although there is no cover for personal liability whilst working. If you are unsure as to what would be considered non-manual, non hazardous work, please contact us.

Sports/Leisure Activities

We provide cover for a wide range of sports and leisure activities whilst you are overseas. However, your participation in activities of a hazardous nature such as (but not limited to) mountaineering, potholing, parachuting, hang gliding or any other aerial activities, sports involving intentional bodily contact, motor-sports and sailing outside territorial waters are not covered. Scuba diving is covered subject to the restrictions shown in the General exclusions on page 8. In addition, winter sports, other than curling, tobogganing and recreational ice-skating, are not covered except when the appropriate additional winter sports premium has been paid. At no time, however, is cover granted for ski or skibob racing in major events, ski jumping, ice-hockey or the use of skeletons or bobsleighs.

Please refer to www.insure4less.com.au for a list of sports and activities that are automatically covered.

Travel Advice

The Australian Government website www.smarttraveller.gov.au provides detailed travel advice about all worldwide destinations. It is important that you refer to this as the policy may exclude cover if you travel to a destination where the Government is advising against travel.

One-Way Travel

In respect of one way travel, cover ceases upon arrival at your final destination, unless it is your intention to return to Australia. In this case, in the event of a claim you will be asked to demonstrate that it was your intention to return to Australia. In addition, if the Insured is repatriated during the period of insurance and does not hold a return ticket, they will be obliged to reimburse the cost of that return ticket to the insurer.

Extending Your Policy

Sometimes you decide that you want to stay overseas longer than you had originally intended when you bought your travel insurance. You can normally extend your policy whilst you are overseas up to a maximum period of 12 months in total from the date cover first started. At the time of applying for your extension, you will be asked some questions relating to your health and your duty of disclosure. If your policy has expired then we are still able to provide cover but you would need to apply for a new policy.

Automatic Extension Of Cover

If you have not completed your travel before the expiry date of the insurance for reasons which are beyond your control, this insurance will remain in force until completion not exceeding a further 21 days without additional premium. In the event of you being hijacked cover shall continue whilst you are subject to the control of the person(s) or their associates making the hijack and during travel direct to your domicile and/or original destination for a period not exceeding twelve months from the date of the hijack.

Automatic Reinstatement Of Sums Insured

The amount you are covered for under sections 5 and 6 as shown in the Schedule of Cover shall be reinstated following the first valid claim under such section. Thereafter the amount payable shall be reduced by the amount of any subsequent valid claims.

Period Of Insurance

Except as stated below, cover for each separate trip under this insurance starts when you leave your home or place of business in your normal country of residence at the start of your trip, and finishes immediately when you return to your home or place of business in your normal country of residence for any reason. For Cancellation only (Section 1), cover starts from the date shown on your certificate of insurance or the date you book your trip, whichever is the later. Personal Money (Section 6) will be covered from the time of collection but not more than 72 hours before travel. If you are going on a one-way trip all cover will finish after your arrival in the country of final destination.

If you have paid the appropriate Annual Multi Trip travel insurance premium the overall period of insurance shall be for 12 months starting from the date shown on your certificate. This insurance then covers an unlimited number of business/leisure trips starting within that period, provided that no single trip is intended to be for longer than 31 days. Winter sports are covered up to 23 days in total.

Except as stated elsewhere, cover for each separate trip under this insurance starts when you leave your home or place of business in Australia at the start of your trip, and finishes immediately when you return to your home or place of business in Australia for any reason.

If you have paid the appropriate premium for Excel Plus each insured person named on the certificate will be covered if they travel independently of other family members.

Currency Conversion

Settlement of claims for expenditure incurred overseas will be made at the rate of conversion applicable at the time of the loss or expense.

Limits Of Cover
